PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

May 25, 1923.

Permit No. Cordova 168-1923,
Joe Magill,
West shore, Cook Inlet,
(Three Mile Creek and Beluga River Districts.)

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Joe Magill, whose post office address is Anchorage, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate his plant at Three-Mile Creek, on the west shore of Cook Inlet, for the mild curing and salting of salmon for commercial purposes, within the Cook Inlet District of said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate one (1) hand trap at what is known as Three-Mile Creek Location, and four (4) 30-fathom salmon gill nets in the vicinity of Beluga River and Three-Mile Creek. Fresh salmon may be purchased from any individual authorized to operate within said district.
2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed fifty (50) tierces of mild cured king salmon, one hundred (100) barrels of salted red salmon, and three hundred (300) barrels of salted salmon, which may be either coho, chum, or humpback. The permittee may also take not to exceed four (4) tons of fresh salmon, for sale to the Anchorage market; and may catch and prepare not to exceed three (3) tons of salmon, either humpback, chum, or coho, for fox or dog feed.
3. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation, (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
